

Doctorate in Educational

Leadership Ed.D.

Prospective Ed. D Students Recruitment Information Sessions!

When:

Wednesday,
November 4th,
6:30pm - 8 pm

Mariposa Hall
CSU, Sacramento
Room # 1016

Courses in the program are taught by faculty representing both university professors and executive leaders in K-12 and community college education. In addition, the program takes advantage of its location in California's capital by utilizing the expertise of education policymakers and analysts.

Through studying transformational leadership, critical policy analysis and action, and informed decision making, graduates will be:

- visionary and effective leaders grounded in applied research and policy development;
- knowledgeable education leaders skillful in guiding organizations;
- education leaders who can participate in the development and implementation of education policy
